FAQs About King Louis the 18th Badder - THCA Concentrate

What is King Louis the 18th Badder?

This isn't your average dab—this is a High Times award-winning product, a creamy, potent badder that packs a royal punch. THCA, for those new to the game, is the non-psychoactive precursor to THC. When heated, it transforms into THC, delivering the full spectrum of effects you'd expect from top-shelf cannabis. Think of it as a concentrated essence of the legendary King Louis strain, known for its earthy, piney vibes with a hint of citrus.

How long does the effect of King Louis the 18th Badder last?

Now, onto the million-dollar question: how long can you ride this regal wave? The effects of King Louis the 18th Badder typically last anywhere from 1 to 3 hours, depending on a few factors like your tolerance, the size of your dab, and how you're consuming it. If you're using a high-quality rig and taking a moderate hit, you're likely looking at a solid 2-hour window of deep relaxation and mental ease. Keep in mind, though, that concentrates like this one from Gold Canna hit fast and hard—peak effects often kick in within minutes and taper off gradually. If you're planning your evening around it, give yourself some buffer time to just chill. After all, we're not just delivering cannabis; we're delivering an elevated experience.

Please note that slight color variations between jars are normal and fall within our quality standards. These minor differences can occur from batch to batch and are considered acceptable, as shown on our website.
