

Why Kosher Kush Is a Worldwide Favorite

Kosher Kush, first cultivated by DNA Genetics, is one of the few strains blessed by a rabbi—hence the name. This 100% indica is known for its strong body high, sleep-inducing power, and rich aroma combining earth, fruit, and spice.

A multiple High Times Cannabis Cup winner, Kosher Kush is an essential strain for any dispensary or bulk cannabis supplier looking to offer reliable potency and name recognition. Its sedative effects, THC levels over 25%, and clean terpene finish make it a must-have for both medical and recreational markets.
