About London Pound Cake

Picture this: a strain that hits like a cozy, late-night dessert sesh, with a flavor profile so rich you’d swear you’re biting into a slice of vanilla cake drizzled with citrus glaze. That’s London Pound Cake in a nutshell.

Genetically, this strain is a cross between Sunset Sherbet and an undisclosed heavy-hitting indica. The result? A terpene profile that’s a masterclass in balance—sweet and doughy on the inhale, with a subtle zing of lemon and berry on the exhale.

The THCa concentration in London Pound Cake Badder is 89.93% and total Cannabinoids present are 92.24%.

London Pound Cake is an indica dominant strain suggested for nighttime use.

What is London Pound Cake Badder?

Let’s break this down for the uninitiated. London Pound Cake Badder is a premium THCA concentrate, a potent extract crafted from top-tier cannabis flower. This badder has a creamy, butter-like consistency—think of it as the caviar of cannabis concentrates. It’s packed with THCA, the non-psychoactive precursor to THC, which means it delivers a powerful experience when heated and consumed.

Is London Pound Cake Badder Legal?

Here’s the deal: legality depends on where you are and how you’re using it. THCA concentrates like London Pound Cake Badder often fall into a gray area. Federally, hemp-derived products with less than 0.3% Delta-9 THC are legal under the 2018 Farm Bill, and since THCA isn’t psychoactive until it’s decarboxylated (heated), many argue it fits the bill. But state laws vary wildly—some places are cool with it, others not so much. At Gold Canna, we ensure our products meet strict quality and compliance standards, shipping discreetly to your door. Still, it’s on you to know your local laws. Do your homework; don’t get caught off guard.

What Does London Pound Cake Badder Taste Like?

Imagine a slice of rich, buttery pound cake with a subtle citrus zest, layered with sweet, berry-like undertones. That’s the vibe we’re working with—a dessert-like profile that’s almost too good to believe until you try it. Our team at Gold Canna sources and processes this concentrate to preserve those terpenes, the compounds responsible for that mouthwatering taste and aroma. When you dab it, expect a smooth, flavorful hit that lingers just long enough to remind you why you trust us to elevate your cannabis game.

Please note that slight color variations between jars are normal and fall within our quality standards. These minor differences can occur from batch to batch and are considered acceptable, as shown on our website.
