FAQs: Sundae Driver THCa Flower Wholesale

Is Sundae Driver THCa flower federally legal?
Yes. As long as Delta-9 THC content remains below 0.3% by dry weight, it’s fully legal under the 2018 Farm Bill. COAs are included with every order.

What does Sundae Driver THCa flower smell and taste like?
Expect a sweet and creamy dessert aroma with notes of vanilla, berry, and grape. The flavor is smooth, slightly fruity, and earthy on the exhale.

How fast can I receive my bulk order?
Most orders are fulfilled within 24–48 hours. Shipping is discreet, tracked, and secure.

Can I get custom packaging or private label options?
Yes. We offer white-label packaging for resellers and THCa brands looking to personalize their products.

Is Sundae Driver a good strain for pre-rolls?
Absolutely. Its flavor, density, and smooth burn make it a top choice for premium pre-roll lines.

Are lab results included with wholesale orders?
Yes. Full-panel COAs are provided with every order, including cannabinoid potency, contaminants, and safety data.
